PLACE TO VOTE BUT NOBODY IS OUT FOR OFFICE

Queer Circumstance Arises in Precinct 11, Fourth District,
For Charter Election

City and County Clerk David Kalanokuni, Jr., has arranged to set aside the Waimanalo school house as the voting place in precinct 11 of the fourth district at the charter election July 6. No candidates filed in precinct 11, so there will be nothing for the voters in that sub-district to vote on.

There will be no booth at the school house, however, nor will there be any election inspectors, and the city will save the $34 that otherwise might be expended in setting up the booth and employing inspectors. HAWAII BETTER THAN HOME LAND FOR JAPANESE

So Says Baron T. Shigo, Who
Advises Countrymen to Stay
Here and Prosper

"Hawaii is a far better country for Japanese than is California. Here, all Japanese are treated as equals, while in California they cannot enjoy their business or their home life," said Baron T. Shigo of the commercial and agricultural department of the Japanese government and commissioner to the Panama-Pacific exposition, shortly before he sailed for Japan in the Shinjo Maru last week.

"In California there is some opposition against the Japanese everywhere," the baron continued. "Not only against those who are engaged in business in the cities, but against those Japanese who are engaged in farming."

"The Japanese small farmers in California are not making any profit on their crops, as prices of vegetables are getting low, due to an over-production. Many of these farmers have been compelled to give up their business and go back to Japan."

"Here in Hawaii the Japanese farmers have excellent opportunities, such as growing sugar cane, coffee, pineapples and vegetables."

"The Japanese should stay here. They should be glad to make their homes in such an excellent country as Hawaii. I consider it foolish for them to return home. They cannot make as good a living in Japan as they can in Hawaii."

"I hope that every one of the 300 Japanese who are taking the Shinjo Maru will return to Hawaii after visiting in Japan."

"Upon returning to this country they should put their whole energy into their business, whether they be merchants or farmers."

The Wailuku Sugar Company of Maui reports a bumper yield of 19,300 tons this year. This is larger by 2000 tons than any other output in the history of the mill. Indications point to an excellent crop for the coming year. This season's grinding will be finished Thursday or Friday.

A lump of mud landed with a splash in the midst of the carefully prepared dinner, whereupon a British soldier in the trenches near Ypres said without turning his head or taking any notice of the shell, the shock of which had been pretty severe, remarked, "I don't mind fighting for Belgium, but I'm hanged if I want to eat it."

HONOLULU TOUR BEING AIRED IN 'FRISCO COURTS

Knights of Columbus Gave Up
Trip—Some Now Charge
Ems With Embezzlement

Warrants charging embezzlement, fraud and obtaining money under false pretenses were sworn to in San Francisco on June 17, says the Examiner, against Oscar Ems of the Ems-Hall Tours Company, 687 Market street, and he is in prison under bonds aggregating thousands of dollars.

Some of the charges are an aftermath of the tour to Honolulu planned last January by the San Francisco Knights of Columbus.

The complainants, including prominent men and women in San Francisco, allege that Ems collected thousands of dollars from them in payment for trips to various parts of the globe and that he refused either to return their money or to give them the steamship tickets for which they paid.

Among those who claim to have been victimized are:

Mrs. Fannie Rosenheim, St. Francis Hotel $3,657.19
M. J. Skee, Healdsburg 1,000.00
William E. Hunt, 680 Third 180.00
William Buchanan, 1738 Larkin street 250.00

Dr. A. J. Knox, Grant building 250.00
Miss Kelly, Western Meat Co. 250.00
Miss Sophie Michelson, 5845 Colby street, Oakland 75.00
Miss Rutherford 50.00
Miss Murphy, Associated Oil Company 100.00

Last January the San Francisco Knights of Columbus councils were considering a tour to Hawaii. E. H. Coleman, the Knights' committee chairman, said Ems represented himself as an agent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. The lodge was obliged to end its negotiations with Ems and the money paid by the members was returned and the trip canceled.

William Buchanan, wholesale broom manufacturer, 623 Sacramento street, said he paid Oscar Ems $250 for his full traveling expenses to Honolulu and return from San Francisco.

Meager reports from Maui state that W. A. Anderson, the former manager of the Nahuiki Rubber Company, ran over and killed a man while driving an automobile in San Francisco last Monday. He was arrested on the charge of manslaughter and his bond fixed at $2000, which sum was cabled to him from Maui.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month and I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. JANSEN, Box 8, Allen, Wash.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
